- A. Barrier 50 paces in front of crossroads, guarded by two sailors. Cars are stopped, documents examined, and then the barrier is lifted. From the barrier, a fence of barbed wire stretches toward the west. [redacted] 50
- [redacted]
- B. [redacted] powder magazine. The whole area is enclosed by a high double fence of barbed wire. At the corners are poles, higher than telephone poles, believed to have aircraft-warning lights. Seven stone houses are within the enclosed space, each enclosed by wire. No sentries were observed.
- C. Three stores of explosives in Nawoz Ostrowski.
- D. Babi Dol area including torpedo stores, torpedo workshops, and torpedo tubes. There is a former German construction for training in torpedo firing, consisting of a long jetty extending out to the sea and ending in a fork. On this fork a torpedo tube on a swivel is mounted. Torpedoes are fired in the direction of Jastarnia, and caught in a net stretched between three supports which protrude a little above the water.
- E. Aircraft hangar.
- F. Building which appears to be a military barracks, standing on a hill.
- G. Low, white building with a very steep roof.
- H. Red brick building; no windows can be seen.
- I. Long building, painted grey, which looks like a storehouse.
